

Interoperability. I believe everyone has every right to use any VRS provider on any devices. Just like Deaf folks have their own TTY and they are able to use any long distance companies without any blockage. They have different brands of TTY yet able to use any long distance companies and even call each other via TTY without any blockage. I do hope that FCC see that and make sure that ANY device is open to any VRS provider. Thank you.